References & Further Reading
For the webinars presented for the Sir James Dunn Animal Welfare Centre as part of the Atlantic Veterinary College’s Winter Webinar Series 2016 on Tuesday February 23 & March 1, 2016
Caroline Hewson MVB PhD MRCVS
Email: clara@thepetlossvet.com

To View The Webinars Euthanasia Decision-Making and Handling Difficult Discussions
- Visit the Sir James Dunn Animal Welfare Centre website http://awc.upei.ca/

References
- Batchelor CEM, McKeegan DEF 2012. Survey of the frequency and perceived stressfulness of ethical dilemmas encountered in UK veterinary practice. Veterinary Record 170(1) doi: 10.1136/vr.100262.

• Hewson CJ 2014a. Grief for companion animals & an approach to supporting their bereaved owners. Bereavement Care 33: 103-110

• Hewson CJ 2014b. Grief for pets Part 2: Avoiding compassion fatigue. Vet Nursing J

• IAAHPC. International Association of Animal Hospice & Palliative Care. https://www.iaahpc.org

• Jones BL, Contro N, Koch KD 2013. The Duty of the Physician to Care for the Family in Pediatric Palliative Care: Context, Communication, and Caring. Pediatrics 133, Suppl 1; S8-S15

www.thepetlossvet.com
• Paul ES, Podberscek, AL 2000).Veterinary education and students' attitudes towards animal welfare.Vet Rec.146,10,269-72
• Rollin BE 200.9 Ethics and euthanasia. Canadian Veterinary Journal 50: 1081-1086.
• Roshier AL, McBride EA 2012. Veterinarians’ perceptions of behaviour support in small-animal practice. Veterinary Record doi: 10.1136/vr.101124
• Smith N. 2015 Compassion Fatigue in UK Practising Registered Veterinary Nurses – Fact or Fiction? BSc (Hons) Dissertation Clinical Veterinary Nursing, Myerscough College, UK
• Walter JK, Ross LR 2013. 2014 Relational Autonomy: Moving Beyond the Limits of Isolated Individualism. Pediatrics 133, Suppl 1, S16-23
• Yeates J. 2010 Ethical aspects of euthanasia of owned animals. In Practice 32: 70-73
Further Reading & Resources

2. For helpful video snapshots from human oncology (~3-5 mins each), see the online resource OncoTalk (http://depts.washington.edu/oncotalk/videos/)

